John Borman and R. Hanson tied on the vote for road supervisor, and the other day each one sneaked in and resigned in the other fellow's favor.

East of us and west of us hard blizzards have raged this fall, but Cherry county, at least this portion of it, has so far escaped. This seems to be a favored locality this year.

James Wellford and family will live on Quigley's Boiling Springs ranch this winter. Jim started for the ranch yesterday, overland, and his wife will go tomorrow.

J. H. Quigley is home from Boiling Springs. He reports everything in good condition in his part of the county.

any other person in Northwest Nebraska. He has just received another carload of wide tire wagons and a car of "Wind Motor" windmills.

Remember, if you are in arrears two years or more for subscription to this paper, your account will be given attorney for collection. Don't blame us for this, because we must make collections.

The Epworth League will give a "wait" or "weight" social at Hornby's hall next Friday evening. Many are wondering what it is but the way to find out is to attend. Everyone cordially invited.

Christmas comes on Sunday this year—five weeks from next Sunday.
What could be more appropriate as a present to a friend than a receipt for a year's subscription to this paper? Think it over.

Born, to L. C. Sparks and wife, yesterday afternoon, November 30, a big boy baby. Score one more for Cherry street. Levi is the biggest man in town just now, and even Uncle Dan Ludwig feels important.

Orders have been received at Fort Niobrara and the troops there have at this place in the early nineties but is now located at Hastings, was in town during the past week shaking hands with old friends and looking after some business interests he has in the south country.

The rumor that Bon Longland and Roland Robertson were to take possession of the Valentine Steam Laundry on December 1, has proven to be an error. Dick Zelian will continue to run that neat cleaning institution, and has no thought of going elsewhere.

While coming to town Tuesday E.
Charbonneau's horse fell on him about four miles this side of Arabia, break-
He was brought to town and Dr. E. H.
Dwyer reduced the fracture. One bone of the limb was broken and the other was splintered.

The annual parish meeting of St.
John's church will be held Saturday evening at 4:30 at the church. Reports of officers for the year will be received and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Other business for the good of the church will be in order. All confirmed members have a voice and vote in this meeting.

A letter was received here last Friday morning from DeWitt C. Huffman, our runaway printer, addressed to C. H. Wellford and the writer, postmarked Paola, Kansas. We are sorry DeWitt wrote the letter, because heretofore we have contended that this was the first time he had committed any criminal acts but we can no longer do it. DeWitt expresses no regret, no sorrow for what he did here, but rather thinks he is entitled to thanks for not "working" the merchants for another hundred dollars.
He says he hates everybody in Valentine except three persons, and boasts that he is wanted in many other places for forgery. Since leaving here he claims to have been in New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and other large cities, and says he is up to his old tricks, "on the road and living off of other people's money."

He claims to have forged two checks at Crawford prior to his advent here, also four at Deadwood.
